

Evaluation of the Safety and Performance of the Neocement® Inject P

NCT06973239

Status RECRUITING
Sponsor Bioceramed
Enrollment 80 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Adult males or females (age \geq 18 years old);
- Patients with bone defect treatment who meet predefined criteria in Instructions For Use (IFU) of Neocement® Inject P;
- Patients who are able to sign an informed consent form (for data collection)
- Patients with bone defects, which may be surgically created or result from traumatic injury to the bone;
- Patients with bone skeletal defects that are not intrinsic to the stability of the bone structure or with a site that can be stabilized;

Exclusion (9)

- Patients who are unable to understand consent and the objectives of the study;
- Signs of local or systemic acute/ active or chronic infections;
- Metabolic affections;
- Severe degenerative diseases, conditions in which general bone grafting is not advisable;
- Implantation sites that allow product migration;
- ... and 4 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Unidade Local de Saúde Esposende/Barcelos, Barcelos, Portugal