

Safety and Tolerability of Low Motoneuron Stimulation Via Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation in Spinal Muscular Atrophy

NCT06977269

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Charitable Foundation Children with Spinal Muscular Atrophy
Enrollment	20 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (3)

- Subject has a diagnosis of 5q-autosomal recessive SMA confirmed by DNA test.
- Informed consent.
- A minimum score of 1 for Entry Item "A" of the Revised Upper Limb Module (RULM) scale for SMA: "Can use hands to hold pencil or pick up a coin/token or drive a powered chair, use phone key pad"

Exclusion (3)

- Subject has severe joint contractures that would affect ability to perform study measures, determined by the study physician.
- Subject has a deconditioned respiratory system, per the discretion of the physician investigator.
- Subject has behavioral or cognitive problems that preclude participation in the study, in the opinion of the investigator.

Locations (1 total)

---

P.V. Voloshyn Institute of Neurology, Psychiatry and Narcology of the National Academy of Medical Sciences of Ukraine, Kharkiv, Kharkiv's'ka Oblast', Ukraine