

Effects of Three Different Surgical Techniques for Horizontal Ridge Bone Augmentation: A Superiority Randomized Clinical Trial

NCT07002931

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	British University In Egypt
Enrollment	63 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (1)

- Have two or more missing teeth in the posterior mandibular segment; 2) The alveolar ridge in the edentulous site of the selected patients will have a buccolingual width of less than 4mm; 3) Sufficient vertical bone height; 4) Free of any local or systemic condition that may contraindicate ridge expansion procedure

Exclusion (1)

- : 1) Patients taking any medication that may interfere with bone healing or bone biology; 2) Patients with any systemic disease that may affect bone healing; 3) Any patients with any previous bone grafting procedure at the site of interest; 4) Smokers; 5) Patient's that have been diagnosed with periodontal disease, as sufficient ridge height would be improbable.

Locations (1 total)

---

Faculty of dentistry, British university of egypt, Cairo, Egypt