

Effect of Botulinum Toxin Type A on Motor Function in Children With Cerebral Palsy

NCT07034547

| | |
|------------|-------------------------|
| Status | RECRUITING |
| Phase | Not Applicable |
| Sponsor | Instituto Teletón Chile |
| Enrollment | 30 participants |

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Spastic hemiparesis type Cerebral Palsy
- Gross Motor Classification System I-II
- Age 8 to 17 years (based on validation ages for scales to be used)
- Minimum of 6 months since last botulinum toxin injection
- Informed consent signed by legal guardian and assent from users aged 12 to 17 years

Exclusion (4)

- Cognitive impairment that prevents following instructions for functional assessments
- Limitation of joint range not caused by spasticity
- Patients diagnosed with other diseases causing spasticity, different from cerebral palsy
- Patients with other neuromuscular diseases

Locations (1 total)

Instituto Teletón Santiago, Santiago, Santiago Metropolitan, Chile