

Effects on Subacute Stroke With Robotic Assistive Gait Training

NCT07040215

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Changhua Christian Hospital
Enrollment	40 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Diagnosed with stroke (ischemic or hemorrhagic) confirmed by medical imaging.
- Subacute phase of stroke (onset within 1 to 3 months).
- Moderate to good standing balance ability.
- Sufficient cognitive ability to understand the study and follow instructions.
- Able to participate in rehabilitation training during the study period.

Exclusion (7)

- Body weight over 90 kg.
- Presence of other neurological disorders.
- Severe cardiovascular disease or other health conditions affecting mobility.
- Significant lower limb pain, joint contracture, or spasticity (Modified Ashworth Scale score ≥ 3) that impairs walking.
- Diagnosed with cardiopulmonary disease that contraindicates exercise training.

... and 2 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Changhua Christian Hospital, Changhua, Taiwan, Taiwan