

A Model to Save Lives Through a Volunteer First Responder Service Providing Antidote Treatment in Opioid Overdose

NCT07079241

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Region Skane
Enrollment	1,000 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (6)

- Give informed written consent to participate in the study
- Successfully complete an opioid overdose and naloxone course in addition to a first aid course, following current first aid guidelines from the Swedish Resuscitation Council and the European Resuscitation Council.
- Download and register oneself as a user on the project-specific volunteer first responder app on a smartphone
- Purchase naloxone from a pharmacy and receive reimbursement for the full cost of the purchase upon submission of the pharmacy receipt
- Victim being e15 years old

... and 1 more (see full listing online)

Exclusion (3)

- \. Displaying inappropriate behavior during the education day (or otherwise in time, as witnessed or experienced by course instructors or the project team). Such conduct could for example be to not follow the guidelines of low-arousal (non-confrontational) approach in emergencies.
- Any trauma behind the condition
- Dispatcher impression of the scene to be unsafe for lay persons

Locations (1 total)

Malmö Addiction Center, Malmo, Skåne County, Sweden