

Corticosteroid Versus PRP Injections for Shoulder Tendinopathy

NCT07094178

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Hopital Charles Nicolle
Enrollment	60 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Adults aged 18 years and older
- Diagnosed with simple tendinopathy of the shoulder confirmed by clinical examination and imaging
- Experiencing shoulder pain for at least 4 weeks
- Able to provide informed consent

Exclusion (6)

- Previous shoulder surgery on the affected side
- Presence of rotator cuff tear or severe shoulder pathology
- Systemic inflammatory diseases (e.g., rheumatoid arthritis)
- Recent corticosteroid injection in the affected shoulder (within last 3 months)
- Contraindications to corticosteroids or PRP treatment

... and 1 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Charles Nicolle Hospital, Tunis, Tunisia