

Comparison of Surgical Management of Early Pregnancy Loss by Suction Curettage Versus Hysteroscopy in Patients Undergoing In-vitro Fertilization (IVF)

NCT07143578

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Assaf-Harofeh Medical Center
Enrollment	50 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- Diagnosis of early pregnancy loss up to 10 weeks' gestation, based on last menstrual period or ultrasound.
- Pregnancy conceived through assisted reproductive techniques (in vitro fertilization, IVF).
- Ability to provide informed consent, and proficiency in reading and writing Hebrew.

Exclusion (8)

- Heavy vaginal bleeding or diagnosis of incomplete abortion.
- Signs of infection and/or suspicion of septic abortion
- Known uterine anomalies- including septate, bicornuate, unicornuate, or didelphys uterus.
- Prior medical or surgical treatment during the current pregnancy
- History of intrauterine adhesions

... and 3 more (see full listing online)

Locations (2 total)

Shamir Medical Center, Be'er Ya'aqov, Israel
Sheba Medical Center, Tel Hashomer, Ramat Gan, Israel