

Evaluation of the Safety and Performance of the Neocement® Inject P: A Prospective Observational Study in Dental Area

NCT07179510

Status	RECRUITING
Sponsor	Bioceramed
Enrollment	66 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- Adult males or females (age \geq 18 years old);
- Patients who are able to sign an informed consent form (for data collection);
- Patients undergoing reconstructive dental surgery and indicated for the use of Neocement® Inject P;

Exclusion (9)

- Patients who are unable to understand consent and the objectives of the study;
- Signs of local or systemic acute/ active or chronic infections;
- Metabolic affections;
- Severe degenerative diseases, conditions in which general bone grafting is not advisable;
- Implementation sites that allow product migration;

... and 4 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Egas Moniz School of Health and Science, Lisbon, Portugal