

Evaluation of the Effect of Tea Tree and Chlorhexidine Mouthwashes on Healing After Third Molar Extraction

NCT07180498

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Harran University
Enrollment	54 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Individuals undergoing extraction of Class 2, Class B mandibular third molars impacted in the lower jaw (Pell & Gregory).
- Individuals aged 18-65.
- Individuals must be in stable general health (e.g., free of serious cardiovascular or kidney disease).
- Individuals willing to use tea tree extract or other treatments.

Exclusion (6)

- Individuals with a known allergy or hypersensitivity to tea tree extract.
- Individuals with serious illnesses such as heart failure or kidney disease. Patients with bleeding disorders.
- Individuals during pregnancy and breastfeeding.
- Individuals taking medications that may interact with tea tree extract (e.g., blood thinners or antihypertensives)
- Individuals previously treated for edema.
- ... and 1 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Harran University, Faculty of Dentistry, Sanliurfa, Turkey (Türkiye)