

The Efficacy and Safety of Shoulder Motion Style Acupuncture Treatment (MSAT) on in Patients With Shoulder Pain Caused by Traffic Accidents

NCT07187336

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Jaseng Medical Foundation
Enrollment	98 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (4)

- Adults aged 19 to 70 years
- Hospitalized with shoulder pain within 5 days after a traffic accident
- Shoulder pain intensity e 5 on the Numeric Rating Scale (NRS) with observed limitation of movement
- Able and willing to provide written informed consent

Exclusion (13)

- Serious conditions causing shoulder pain (e.g., malignant tumor, infection)
  - Progressive or severe neurological deficits
  - Recent shoulder surgery or procedure within 3 weeks
  - Shoulder pain mainly due to non-shoulder disorders (e.g., fibromyalgia, rheumatoid arthritis, gout)
  - Contraindications to MSAT (e.g., fracture, dislocation, ligament rupture or instability, severe inflammation)
- ... and 8 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

---

Haeundae Jaseng Hospital of Korean Medicine, Busan, Haeundae, South Korea