

Early Childhood Dietary Assessment Study

NCT07227272

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	The University of Tennessee, Knoxville
Enrollment	40 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Adult caregiver e 18 years old
- Absence of food allergies or dietary restrictions for medical reasons (for the child)
- Caregiver reports child likes at least 70% of the study-provided foods from the pre-defined list of food options
- Caregiver has access to a smartphone device compatible with the EMA platform
- Caregiver can identify a second adult caregiver with access to a smartphone device compatible with the EMA platform and willing to provide the child with study-provided foods for at least two eating occasions.

Exclusion (5)

- Caregiver unwilling to feed study-provided foods to their child
- Caregiver unwilling to take pre-and-post photos of child's eating occasions
- Caregiver unwilling or unable to identify a second adult caregiver meeting the eligibility criteria
- Caregiver and child reside in a separate household for \> 2 days per week
- Family resides \>25 miles outside of the Knoxville, Tennessee, metropolitan area.

Locations (1 total)

Healthy Eating and Activity Lab, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee, United States