

Effects of Hand and Arm Bimanual Intensive Therapy Including Lower Extremity in Spastic Cerebral Palsy

NCT07253857

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Lahore University of Biological and Applied Sciences
Enrollment	42 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (5)

- Diagnosed with diplegic cerebral palsy
- CP children with manual ability level 1-3 on manual ability classification system
- Participants with gross motor function classification system level ranging from 1-3 will be included in the study.
- With an ability to grasp light objects and lift the more affected arm 15 cm above a table surface.
- Base line cognition level should be 20 or above assessed through mini mental state exam for children (MMC).

Exclusion (4)

- Uncontrolled seizures
- Recent or planned botulinum toxin injections within 6 months
- Any recent orthopedic interventions that may affect motor function
- Visual impairments impeding with treatment protocol

Locations (1 total)

---

Pakistan Society for Rehabilitation of Differently Abled (PSRD), Lahore, Punjab Province, Pakistan