

The Aim of the Study is to Examine the Variation in Blood Pressure Between an Optimal Measurement (According to Established Guidelines in the Literature - Per Guidelines) and a 'Common' Measurement (Used by Nursing Teams - Per Common Practice) Among Women of Reproductive Age With and Without Hyperte

NCT07320339

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Hillel Yaffe Medical Center
Enrollment	500 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (2)

- Women aged 18-40
- Informed consent to participate.

Exclusion (2)

- Inability to cooperate with BP measurement under optimal conditions
- Women with complex underlying disease that may bias the data (e.g. significant vasculopathy)

Locations (1 total)

Hillel Yaffe Medical Center, Hadera, Israel, Israel