

Study on the Safety and Efficacy of Domestic Single-Port Robot-Assisted Metabolic Bariatric Surgery.

NCT07335731

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	China-Japan Friendship Hospital
Enrollment	50 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (1)

- Overweight or obese patients who meet the criteria for metabolic weight loss surgery, with a BMI ≥ 27.5 kg/m²; a Patients who understand the purpose of the trial, voluntarily participate in the trial, and sign an informed consent form.

Exclusion (1)

- Patients who cannot tolerate general anesthesia, such as those with severe heart, lung, or liver dysfunction; a Patients with severe coagulation disorders; b Pregnant patients; c Patients with concurrent tumors; d Patients with extensive and severe abdominal adhesions that prevent the establishment of pneumoperitoneum; e A BMI > 50 kg/m² is a relative contraindication; f Patients deemed unsuitable for participation in this trial by any other investigator.

Locations (1 total)

China-Japan Friendship Hospital, Beijing, China