

Neuroimaging of Adolescent Cannabis Use Treatment

NCT07340554

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Indiana University
Enrollment	80 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- year old youth
- Guardian 18 years or older
- Youth is MRI-eligible: No metal implants, prosthetics, orthodontic devices, transdermal medication patches, piercings and/or hair or eyelash extensions that cannot easily be removed, metallic ink tattoos on the neck or face, or claustrophobia, and are not pregnant
- Youth must endorse having used cannabis at least once per week over the past month OR youth must have been diagnosed with cannabis use disorder within the past three months

Exclusion (4)

- Youth has a history of Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder, intellectual disorders, pervasive development disorder or autism spectrum disorder, psychotic disorders, history of neurological problems (epilepsy, traumatic brain injury, brain tumor, cerebrovascular disease) by parent/guardian report
- Youth or caretaker who is monolingual non-English speaker
- Youth who is currently experiencing active psychosis symptoms or suicidal/homicidal ideation or who has been hospitalized within the past 6 months for psychosis or suicidality/homicidality
- Youth who is currently undergoing contingency management treatment for cannabis use disorder

Locations (1 total)

Indiana University School of Medicine, Indianapolis, Indiana, United States