

Observing 3-5 Year Old Children's Use of Interactive Electronic Devices (IED) in the Family Home to Understand the Context These Devices Are Being Used in, Exploring Whether Socioeconomic Factors or Parent's Own Use of Such Devices Influence the Child's IED Usage.

NCT07373483

Status RECRUITING
Sponsor Sheffield Hallam University
Enrollment 20 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- Children between 3 and 5 years old
- Children who use an interactive electronic device
- Children who have received parent/carer consent for participation and provided verbal assent

Exclusion (2)

- Children whose parents do not speak and/or understand English
- Children who have been clinically diagnosed with a developmental disorder by a medical professional prior to either baseline or follow-up assessments

Locations (1 total)

Sheffield Hallam University, Sheffield, United Kingdom