

Evaluation of Cochlear (Promontory) Stimulation During Awake Ear Surgery (TONES Study)

NCT07402941

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Auricle Health Inc.
Enrollment	18 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- Individual is e 18 years old at the time of consent.
- Individual is scheduled for awake ear surgery that will expose the middle ear (subannular tympanostomy tube placement, tympanoplasty, stapes surgery).
- Individual is willing to complete intraoperative assessments of promontory stimulation.

Exclusion (14)

- Individual has had severe-to-profound hearing loss for more than 30 years.
- Individual has congenital hearing loss (for the purpose of this study, onset prior to 2 years of age)
- Ear canal will not accommodate a speculum with minimum outer diameter (OD) of 4.0 mm or other anatomic challenges present as determined by the study investigator
- Hearing loss or auditory processing disorder of neural or central origin
- Active middle ear infection
- ... and 9 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Cleveland Clinic, Cleveland, Ohio, United States