

Possible Beneficial Effects Of Combined Fluoxetine And Occlusion Therapy In Improving And Maintaining Vision In Amblyopia Using Optical Coherence Tomography Angiography (OCTA) And Visual Evoked Potential (VEP). The Aim Of The Study Is To Evaluate Possible Beneficial Effects For Different Age Groups.

NCT07417046

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Minia University
Enrollment	50 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (1)

- Patients with unilateral amblyopia > 10 years old.

Exclusion (4)

- Ocular pathology: media opacity, uveitis, glaucoma, retinal or optic nerve diseases, and history of ocular trauma.
- Poor fixation.
- Lack of cooperation.
- Any psychological disorder.

Locations (1 total)

Faculty of medicine, Minia university, Minya, Minya Governorate, Egypt