

Efficacy of an Antioxidant Moisturizing Serum for Mild to Moderate Seborrheic Dermatitis

NCT07433907

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Institute of Dermatology, Thailand
Enrollment	13 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Age: e 18 years old
- Gender: Male and Female
- Patient who never uses or has stopped using topical corticosteroids/calcineurin inhibitor or other topical treatments exerting anti-inflammatory action (on the face) more than 2 weeks before entering this clinical trials.
- Patient who does not use cosmetic containing any oxidants or others that exert anti-oxidant effect(s). If there is any, one must refrain from using them more than 2 weeks before entering this clinical trials.

Exclusion (7)

- Patients with known cases of underlying HIV/AIDS, neurological condition e.g., Parkinson's disease.
- Patient associated with any autoimmune diseases and other skin diseases
- Patient takes any forms of oral immunotherapy more than 2 months up to the first day of clinical trials.
- Patients continuously use of topical corticosteroids or other anti-inflammatory medicines on regular basis up to the first day of clinical trial.
- Patient who refuses to stop using cosmetic(s) containing anti-oxidants or those exert anti-oxidant effect(s).
- ... and 2 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Institute of dermatology, Ratchathewi, Bangkok, Thailand