

Frailty and Nottingham Hip Fracture Score for Predicting 90-Day Mortality After Hip Fracture Surgery

NCT07481188

Status RECRUITING
Sponsor Trakya University
Enrollment 200 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Age 60 years or older
- Admission for acute proximal femoral fracture (femoral neck, intertrochanteric, or subtrochanteric fracture)
- Surgical treatment for hip fracture
- Ability to obtain clinical data required for NHFS and frailty assessment

Exclusion (5)

- Pathological fractures
- Periprosthetic fractures
- Hip fractures resulting from high-energy trauma or polytrauma
- Non-operative treatment
- Second hip fracture occurring in the same patient during the study period

Locations (1 total)

Trakya University, Edirne, Turkey (Türkiye)